Wednesday afternoon, Catherine Brinkman, Chair of the California Young Republicans, Inc. (CYR) held a board meeting via conference call, where Nicolee Ambrose and her slate were unanimously endorsed to be the new leaders of the YRNF. Over the course of the past four months, Catherine has developed a close friendship with Nicolee and has heard her plan to reunite the country and move the YRNF forward.

When asked why CYR, Inc. endorsed Team Ambrose, Catherine responded, "Nicolee has worked extremely hard in the past few years to earn the respect and trust of the country. She has delivered on everything she has promised. She has demonstrated to California, time and time again, that she has the best interest of the YRNF at heart and is working to unite the organization. It is with great pleasure that the California Young Republicans, Inc. endorse Team Ambrose. I look forward to delivering California to her and the rest of her slate."

California Republican Party Associate Representative Amanda Richardson commented, "Nicolee has the proven leadership and the tools to bring all the states together to form a stronger and more influential organization."

"The YRNF has the potential to become a powerhouse among national conservative organizations, and Nicolee Ambrose will provide the leadership we need to achieve our shared goals," said California National Committeeman Zack Scrivner.

Upon hearing of California's endorsement, Ambrose said, "It's an honor to earn California's endorsement. California has a tremendously committed leadership team and a long history of supporting the YRNF. Our team is eager to work with California to help the YRNF reach its potential."
